20,000 people on their feet:
orderly exit or out of control?

In critical moments, Sygnal™ mass notification provides the difference between calm and chaos.

Even in seemingly contained settings, reaching everyone can be a colossal and complicated task. With Sygnal, you get more than just the software and hardware of a mass notification system. You get a plan, and the expertise and service necessary to execute it. Sygnal gives you the ability to reach people inside, outside and at their side, for maximum contactability when it matters most. With Sygnal, you really can reach them all. www.usa.siemens.com/sygnal
